Being Bullied: Long-Term Outcomes for Schools that Continued Use of the OBPP (66 schools) vs. Schools that Discontinued the OBPP (95 schools) vs. National Average (Norway)

Ttofi & Farrington Meta-analyses (2008, 2009, 2011)

- Whole-school programs can be successful in reducing bullying
- Programs "inspired by the work of Dan Olweus worked best"

Effective Strategies for Bullying Prevention and Intervention

1. Focus on the whole school environment.

• Involve the entire school community

2. Assess bullying at school.

- Survey students anonymously
- Survey annually to determine effect

CLEMSON

3. Form a group to coordinate bullying prevention activities.

- Team receives training
- Tailors program for school
- Meets monthly

4. Train all staff in bullying prevention.

- How to identify bullying
- Effects of bullying
- Practice how to intervene
- School policies

- 5. Establish and enforce school rules and policies related to bullying.
 - We will not bully others.
 - We will try to help students who are bullied.
 - We will try to include students who are left out.
 - If we know that somebody is being bullied, we will tell an adult at school and an adult at home.

6. Involve children in regular discussions about bullying.

- Class meetings—regular circle discussions
- Deepen relationships
- Provide tools to address problems
- Student advisory groups

7. Increase adult supervision in locations where bullying occurs.

CLEMSON

OLWEUS

8. Intervene consistently and appropriately in bullying situations.

- Prepare all staff to intervene
- Intervene "on-the-spot" when bullying is witnessed
- "Follow-up" interventions provide deeper conversations and solutions.

9. Garner parent support for bullying prevention.

- Involve families from the start
- Parents must feel welcome to contact the school
- Involve them at all levels of implementation

10. Provide ongoing support.

- Ongoing support is needed
- Provide adequate resources so process is clear
- Leader commitment is essential

11. Continue efforts over time.

- Don't give up!
- Change takes time
- No "end date"
- Refresh efforts each year
